All these documents form part of this contract as though set out in full here.

2. Information I give you

- 2.1. Certain sections of this contract only apply to you and me if you are a 'consumer', that is if you are an individual acting for purposes which are wholly or mainly outside your business or profession. By law, the Consumer Contracts (Information, Cancellation and Additional Charges) Regulations 2013 say that I must give you certain key information before a legally binding contract of sale between you and me is made (see the summary box below). I shall give you this information in a clear and understandable way either in this contract or in the service description.

I shall give you information on:

- the main characteristics of the services you are buying
- who I am, where I am based and how you can contact me
- the price of the services
- the arrangements for payment, carrying out the services and the time by which I shall carry out the services
- how to exercise your right to cancel the contract in the cooling off period if you are a consumer
- my complaint handling policy

3. Signing up for my services

- 3.1. Below, I set out how a legally binding contract to buy services between you and me is made:
- 3.1.1. You place your order at the end of the checkout process either by clicking on the relevant payment link on my site, by transferring payment to my bank account or I shall send you the link by email. Please read and check your order carefully before submitting it. Placing your order and making payment does not, however, mean that your order has been accepted.
- 3.1.2. Any quotation given by me before you place an order for services is not a legally binding offer by me to supply such services. Any prices set out in a quotation remain valid for 14 days.
- 3.1.3. When you decide to place an order for services with me, this is when you make a legal offer to buy such services from me.
- 3.1.4. I may contact you to say that I do not accept your order, for example if I do not think my services are right for you or there has been a mistake in the pricing or description of the services, or my circumstances have changed since I gave you the quotation for the services.
- 3.1.5. I shall only accept your order when I confirm this to you by sending you a confirmation email or start to provide the services, whichever happens earlier. At this point:
- (a) a legally binding contract will be in place between you and me, and
 - (b) I shall start to carry out the services as set out in the services description.

4. Carrying out the services

- 4.1. If you are a consumer you have protection under consumer rights legislation, including that the services must be carried out with reasonable care and skill.
- 4.2. I shall carry out the services within the time period which is set out in the relevant services description.
- 4.3. All coaching sessions (including rearranged sessions) must be taken within the timeframe specified in the programme description or services description or they will expire.
- 4.4. You cannot rearrange group coaching sessions, but you may roll over your attendance to another session if you cannot attend all sessions in a month that you have paid for. If you fail to attend your paid sessions within the duration of the group coaching timeframe due to your personal reasons, you will not receive a refund unless otherwise notified, at my discretion.

- 4.5. All sessions take place remotely via the means of communication agreed with you in advance.
- 4.6. Please note that I may wish to record our calls for training purposes or administration purposes, but I will ask your permission to do so if and when this arises. If you would like a session recorded, it is your choice, and responsibility to ask before each session.
- 4.7. My carrying out of the services might be affected by events beyond my reasonable control. If so, there might be a delay before I can restart the services. I shall make reasonable efforts to limit the effect of any of those events, I shall keep you informed of the circumstances and I shall try to restart the services as soon as those events have been fixed. Examples of events which might be beyond my reasonable control include illness, pandemics, epidemics, IT issues and problems with internet connectivity, any law or action taken by a government or public authority.
- 4.8. Where a session or event is due to take place in person, I reserve the right to move that session online where circumstances make it necessary or preferable to do so.

5. Your responsibilities

- 5.1. You will pay the price for the services in accordance with the services description.
- 5.2. You will provide me with such information and assistance (and ensure that any information is complete and accurate) as I reasonably need to provide the services.
- 5.3. You and I shall agree a method of communicating with each other between sessions and adhere to that method.
- 5.4. Coaching is not therapy or counselling. It may involve all areas of your life. You acknowledge that deciding how to handle any issues which may arise, the choices you make in relation to them and whether or not you follow through on any agreed action is exclusively your responsibility. For this reason, although I fully expect great results to come from our coaching sessions, I cannot guarantee any specific outcomes or that all clients will achieve the same results. The results are entirely dependent on your commitment and the effort you put in to the programme and the actions we agree.
- 5.5. My role as your life coach and healing facilitator is to offer you guidance and accountability and help you make positive lifestyle changes in order to make progress towards your goals. The information I provide to you is not medical advice and is not intended to take the place of seeing licensed health professionals.
- 5.6. Coaching does not treat mental disorders and is not a substitute for counselling, mental health care or medical treatment of any kind. By entering into this agreement, you confirm that you will not use it in place of any form of counselling, therapy or medical treatment.
- 5.7. If you are currently receiving treatment from a doctor or other healthcare professional, by entering into this agreement you confirm that you have consulted with this person regarding the advisability of working with a coach and that this person is aware of and supports your decision to proceed with the coaching programme described in the relevant programme or services description.

- 6.4.1. if you are a consumer, you have the right to a refund during the 'cooling off' period, as described below;
 - 6.4.2. where I cancel a programme (other than under 12.3 below) you are entitled to a partial refund for sessions which you have paid for in advance and which you have not received.
 - 6.4.3. where you wish to cancel this contract and you give me one month's notice in writing, I shall give you a partial refund for sessions which you have paid for in advance and which you have not received, but I shall deduct reasonable compensation for the net costs I shall incur as a result of your ending the contract.
